GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS for all Schedules.

1. Values reported should be as of date of death.
2. The appointment of an appraiser is not always necessary.
3. Each asset of a Schedule is to be given its own "Item Number."
4. DO NOT list any joint tenancy property unless the Decedent did not intend to create a true joint tenancy, but rather created for convenience a nominal joint tenancy which is subject to probate. Joint tenancy with right of survivorship property listed in this inventory may be converted to probate property with the consent of the surviving joint tenant(s).
5. List the gross fair market value of each item without subtracting for mortgages or liens.
6. List all mortgages and liens for which decedent was liable on Schedule E.
7. Blank schedules need not be attached.
